

In-person Combo Sessions

This program gives musicians of all levels the opportunity to explore and deepen their understanding of jazz improvisation and advance their practical ability in the context of ensemble performance. Vocals and all instruments are welcome! This year the in-person workshop is open to students 13 years and older and adults.

Combo classes will be held at various locations including the Red Barn at Southlands, Delta Community Music School, and the Benediction Church in Tsawwassen.

August 15 - 19
(9:30 am - 4:30 pm)

Student Concert
Saturday, August 19, 2023
(afternoon)

Each combo will receive the same amount/type of classroom time/faculty instruction and access to all online program components. Each combo will conclude its schedule with a live outdoor performance at Southlands depending on restrictions at the time of the performance.

Combo Classes

Our in-person combo classes will also have access to online resources such as instructional course documents, online play-along tracks, and more

These will help enhance the total experience.

COME JOIN US!

Our in-person combo rehearsals will be in large spaces that will allow for adequate social distancing and room to rehearse. The workshop will take place at the Red Barn at Southlands and other nearby spaces that are large enough to accommodate this.

IN-PERSON COMBO CLASS

Each combo will rehearse in-person with coaching from one of our faculty over 8 two-hour sessions in total, as per their individual combo schedule.

MASTERCLASSES

Each day there will be mid-day masterclasses, noon-hour faculty concerts or other group musical activities for all the combo participants.

FESTIVAL CONCERTS

Workshop participants will have admission to festival concerts and events held during the Festival weeks.
